Dear Friends

It's my immense pleasure to welcome you to VRSI meet in December 2024 at Guwahati. I welcome all the members and non-members too to the VRSI meet to make the event a grand success. We are holding this scientific meet in Assam for the second time. Please do come and enjoy the flora and fauna of nature along with the scientific bonanza. Guwahati is the gateway of the North Eastern state of India and surrounded by lush green hills & hillocks with number of temples like Kamakhya, Umananda etc.

I am sure that there are many unsung retinologists who can come forward to share their ideas and experiences for the development of human causes and benefit.

Hence I welcome all of you to avail the opportunities to enjoy the scientific meeting at Guwahati in December, 2024.
